HABITS

TO GROW YOUR FAITH

Week 5

Isn't Faith a personal/private thing?

That may depend on where you've come from. We often hear people say they avoid talking about religion or politics because it's divisive. However, statistics indicate people today are far more open to conversations about faith than we think. Did you know that a third to half of people surveyed said they would consider coming to church if invited? The Bible encourages us to tell others about Jesus—it's as simple as sharing how meeting Him impacted you! This week we'll dig into scriptures and find the answer to the question 'Do I really need to share my faith?'

Here's how this tool works:

1. READ the daily Bible passage and write down thoughts or things from the verses that stood out to you. You can even rewrite the verse in your own words to help you process what the writer is saying.
2. From these verses, ASK yourself what is the Holy Spirit may be saying me? How you can apply this truth to your life in a practical way? Is there a sin to confess, a promise to claim, a command to obey or a pitfall to avoid? Write it down.
3. Now write some PRAYER needs. Some people like to rewrite their application as a prayer back to God. Writing out prayers can be a helpful way to communicate what is on your heart.

EXTRA:

If a verse really impacted you, write it down and have a go at committing it to memory!
